EXT. KRYPTON-DAY

The planet Krypton, protected by the green aura of defense shields. A lone Satellite flies overhead.

We move in for a closer view. Architecture beyond current human capabilities rises from the surface of the cold green planet.

INT MAINFRAME CHAMBER

A monolithic wall of computer banks. Read-outs of every possible condition of the planet. On other monitors: views of Kryptonian life.

On one small monitor, a lone blinking cursor suddenly appears. It begins moving across the screen, spelling out "COMMENCE SATELLITE UPLOAD.

EXT COUNCIL HALL - DAY

Passersby react to a booming voice from inside.

JOR-EL V.O.

I SUBMIT TO THE HIGH COUNCIL THAT THIS PLANET AND ALL ITS INHABITANTS ARE DOOMED!

INT. HIGH COUNCIL CHAMBERS

Chief Science Officer to the Council, JOR-EL, passionately addresses the assembled COUNCIL MEMBERS from beneath an elevated platform, upon which sits SYLVAN (the Head of the Council), DAN-TE (the Psychiatric Officer) and others. Opposite Jor-El stands RAN-DAL (the Defense Officer), scowling. Schematics and breakdowns of the planet- none very hopeful- are displayed on the huge screens that wall the room.

JOR-EL

The mineral depletion that has weakened this planet's core has now reached dangerous levels!
This planet is as good as dead!
All I'm asking... All I've ever asked...

JOR-EL (cont'd)
is that you grant me permission to launch the probe I've built to find a new planet with an atmosphere close to our own!

DAN-TE
And once this is found? Then what?

JOR-EL
(steels himself)
Then we have to evacuate
Krypton.

The Council erupts in disbelief. Some hurl insults at Jor-El, others merely laugh. Sylvan calls for order.

SYLVAN
Jor-El, it is Brainiac's assessment that opening the defense systems- even long enough to jettison your probe-could compromise Krypton's sterilized atmosphere.

JOR-EL
Might I remind the Council,
Brainiac is an offworld computer system. The Coluans never programmed Brainiac to detect planetary anomalies! The Eradiator's readings indicate...

RANDAL
So that's where this 'data'
comes from- your Eradiator System. If the Council recalls, that obsolete system was decommissioned the moment
Brainiac went online.

DAN-TE
Can you stand before us and deny that it is your pathological mistrust in the Coluan computer which fuels these unfounded and traitorous notions of planetary extinction?!

JOR-EL
You think I hold a grudge against a machine?!

Sylvan shifts forward in his seat.

SYLVAN

To review your data and reach an official decision, the Council calls on Brainiac.

The schematics that filled the screen blink off, giving way to a simple symbol: three solid circles, intersected by straight lines. A calm, synthetic voice fills the room. It is the voice of BRAINIAC.

BRAINIAC

Greetings, members of the High Council. Jor-El.

Jor-El offers the screen a cold glare.

SYLVAN

Brainiac, Jor-El wishes to launch a probe, in...

BRAINIAC

In an effort to find a planet that will sustain life. It is Jor-El's findings that Krypton is unstable due to core depletion.

SYLVAN

For the eighth time, Brainiac-- is this possible?

BRAINIAC

I suppose one could arrive at any number of errant conclusions when one is employing technology as ancient as Jor-El's Eradicator.

JOR-EL

The Eradicator is a hundred times your better, Coluan! It's your apparent inability to compute the data that's endangering this planet further by the second.

BRAINIAC

Were I allowed access to the Eradicator I could investigate those so-called findings further.

The conclusion- Krypton is in no danger.

JOR-EL

He's lying!

BRAINIAC

It is my recommendation that Jor-El be detained for thorough psychological examination.

Jor-El shakes his head.

EXT COUNCIL HALL- DAY

Suddenly, the surface of the planet explodes, raining fire and debris down on the unsuspecting Kryptonian populace. Screaming ensues.

INT HIGH COUNCIL

The room shudders. Jor-El looks downward, sadly.

JOR-EL

It begins...

The Council Hall begins to crumble.

SYLVAN

BRAINIAC! REPORT!

But the Brainiac SYMBOL, fading like its counterpart in the mainframe, disappears from the screen.

EXT KRYPTON

High above the dying planet, the orbiting satellite blinks to life.

INT SATELLITE

On one of three SCREENS, the Brainiac SYMBOL materializes.

INT JOR-EL'S LAB

Jor-El bursts into his lab, rushing toward a small rocket-looking craft. There is a thundering boom, and the room shakes. Jor-El grabs onto the rocket for support.

JOR-EL

VOICE (echoing through the room)

I have secured Lara and the child in the north wing, Jor-El.

The source of the voice descends from the ceiling- a screen emblazoned with a familiar 'S' symbol extends from hi-tech machinery. It moves like a tentacle, following Jor-El about the room. This is the ERADICATOR.

JOR-EL
How long do you estimate until meltdown?

ERADICATOR
The planet's core will go nuclear in approximately twenty minutes.

JOR-EL
Re-outfit the probe. Dump all the collection drives and fashion a cargo-hold.

An elevator rises, as LARA (Jor-El's wife) is brought in on a conveyance. In her arms, she cradles their child- Kal-El.

LARA
We can never fit in there- all three of us!

JOR-EL
Not all three, Lara...
(beat)
Just Kal.

Lara looks to the craft that the Eradicator pours over, other tendrils holding tools working at a furious pace on the ship. She goes pale.

LARA
He'll never survive!

JOR-EL
I'm downloading the Eradicator into the craft as well. Take Kal-El to the launch pad. We'll meet you as soon as the ship is prepared.

Eyes filled with tears, Lara nods and rushes to the elevator.

ERADICATOR

If this is about sparing me the coming disaster Jor-El, might I remind you that I am a computer, and as such lack a penchant for fear or self-preservation.

JOR-EL

This isn't sentimental, old friend. You're to protect my son. I'm entering a new program which will allow you to constantly monitor the child. In the event of a significant drop in his vital signs, you will become sentient.

ERADICATOR

Sentient?!? You mean...alive?!?

Jor-El lowers a green-glowing energy prism into the hull of the craft.

EXT KRYPTON

The planet trembles violently, and mushroom clouds shoot from the surface.

INT ELEVATOR

Lara is thrown about the car, cradling the infant in her arms. She drops to the floor.

INT ELEVATOR SHAFT

Two cables hold the car. One snaps, and the car lists to the left.

INT JOR-EL'S LAB

The Eradicator freezes in its work.

JOR-EL

Lara! Kal-El!

INT ELEVATOR

Lara carefully pries open the elevator doors. The car rests below a floor, offering only three feet of exit. Lara slowly lifts the child off the floor.

INT ELEVATOR SHAFT

The cable begins to give, as two wires snap and fray.

INT ELEVATOR

The car shifts. Lara moves quickly toward the opening. She raises the child above her and slides it out, onto the floor above.

INT ELEVATOR SHAFT

The wire snaps. The car plummets.

INT ELEVATOR

Lara pulls her hands back just in time, as the car shoots downwards. She screams.

INT ELEVATOR SHAFT

The falling car is suddenly 'chased' by an artificial tendril; then another; then more. Half the tendrils grab onto the top of the car, pulling off the roof, revealing a terrified Lara inside.

INT ELEVATOR

The other half of the tendrils wrap themselves around Lara, allowing the car around them to continue to drop.

INT ELEVATOR SHAFT

The car hits the end of the shaft below, shattering with a small explosion.

INT LAUNCH PAD- LATER

Infant Kal-El is sealed into the rocket. Lara weeps, and Jor-El touches the hull of the ship as it rises to launch position.

JOR-EL

Watch over Kal-El, Eradicator.
Impart to him his glorious Kryptonian heritage. But most importantly- protect my son.

JOR-EL
The greatest joy I've known in this life has been in your arms,
Lara.

(takes her face in his hands)
Thank you- for your love, for your faith...

He looks skyward at the rocketing craft.

JOR-EL
For our son.

And as their world crumbles, Jor-El and Lara kiss.

EXT SPACE ABOVE KRYPTON

The escape craft rockets past the Brainiac satellite, as Krypton explodes.

INT BRAINIAC SATELLITE

On one of three screens, the Escape craft appears.
Brainiac's 'voice' booms through the cabin.

BRAINIAC
Predictable to the last, Jor-El.
It took the destruction of your planet, but I now have access to your precious Eradicator technology.

On the second screen, a visual of an anthropomorphic
'body'- that which will become Brainiac's chosen form.

INT ESCAPE CRAFT

The mapping system zooms in on a distant planet in a neighboring galaxy.

ERADICATOR
Hmmm...Earth. Primitive, yet suitable. It'll do for now.
Plotting course.

INT BRAINIAC SATELLITE.

On the first screen, the visual of the escape craft reveals the child within. 'CARBON-BASED INFANT LIFEFORM' flashes.

BRAINIAC

The Last Son of Krypton. He will not survive the assimilation process. Intercept.

EXT SPACE

The satellite unleashes a cold, blue beam which strikes and encases the Escape craft.

INT ESCAPE CRAFT

Alarms flash 'Alert'.

ERADICATOR

Brainiac!

INT BRAINIAC SATELLITE

On the third screen, a graph appears, delineating the burgeoning energy being sucked from the Escape craft.

BRAINIAC

Ahhh...the power! I feel it coursing through my systems!
The assimilation of Eradicator technology into my own programming, transforming me from mere circuitry into a god!

EXT BRAINIAC SATELLITE

Metal shifts and reforms, as the Satellite rebuilds itself into the Brainiac SKULL SHIP- a tentacled craft, skull-like in appearance.

INT BRAINIAC SKULL SHIP

On the second screen, 'TRANSFORMATION SEQUENCE ACTIVATED' flashes beside the visual of the impending Brainiac body. A 'PERCENTAGE' figure slowly rises, as we PAN OVER to the interior of the cabin, which-like the exterior of the ship- is reconfiguring, growing a 'body' for Brainiac.

INT ESCAPE CRAFT

The mapping program is interrupted with the image of the semi-formed Brainiac filling its screen, 'speaking'.

BRAINIAC

(onscreen)

Eradicator- surrender yourself now and the child will be spared. Resist, and I promise-

EXT SPACE

There is a sonic boom, as the space surrounding what was Krypton rips open, forming a Black Hole which sucks planetary debris within itself.

The shock waves send the ships into flux. The Skull Ship's lock on the Escape craft is broken.

INT ESCAPE CRAFT

The infant Kal-El gazes about obliviously as the ship shudders.

EXT SPACE ABOVE KRYPTON

The escape craft makes a star-blurring jump to light speed.

EXT SPACE

The Skull Ship's thrusters kick in full force, but the pull of the Black Hole is too strong. The thrusters explode.

INT SKULL SHIP

Fire sweeps through the interior of the cabin, igniting Brainiac's form.

BRAINIAC

NOOOOOOOOOO!!!!

Two humanoid ALIENS dressed in uniforms pilot their craft nearer to the Asteroid.

ALIEN 1

We're heading back to base now.
Just want to check out this Asteroid outside the Oan System.

COMMAND V.O.

We'll expect you soon. Command out.

Through the Craft's windshield, the drifting Asteroid looms large.

ALIEN 2

(off computer)

For a rock, it's giving off powerful radioactive readings.
Could just be the Oan starbelt, though.

Suddenly, through the windshield, we see TENTACLES shoot out of the Asteroid.

EXT SPACE

The tentacles wrap themselves around the Craft, and electrical energy courses between the pair. The Asteroid begins 'unfolding'.

INT ALIEN CRAFT

Their bodies wracked with shockwaves, the Aliens writhe in agony, green blood leaking from their eyes.

EXT SPACE

The 'Asteroid' reveals itself to be the BRAINIAC SKULL SHIP. A set of 'jaws' protrude and puncture the hull of the small craft. It glows white hot with power.

INT SKULL SHIP OPERATING THEATRE

We see a surgical TABLE, its contents obscured by the shadows, save for the back of a malformed HEAD. Computerbanks and monitors are everywhere. A small legless ROBOT hovers beside the table.

CU ON A METALLIC SHAFT- as it begins to reconfigure, taking the shape of an arm. We see the same happen to other parts of this 'body'- hands, legs, facial features.

EXT SPACE

The Craft the Skull Ship holds then goes dark, the energy being sucked from it having run dry.

INT SKULL SHIP OPERATING THEATRE

The 'patient' stops convulsing, as the cable attached to its head ceases to glow.

BRAINIAC

L-RON!!!

INT SKULL SHIP BRIDGE

The figure from the Operating Theatre stumbles through the shadows of the massive bridge. The View Screen displays the prey the ship captured. L-Ron enters, carrying purloined booty from the alien craft.

BRAINIAC

That was all the energy the Craft yielded?

L-RON

Cruisers are short rangers, your eminence. I'm surprised that can had enough juice to give you form. We pulled 1.9 Trigs out of it.

The Figure (Brainiac) moves to the view screen, not affording the audience a clear view of its features. It sighs.

L-RON

I emptied their data banks and only other thing I found was this.

L-Ron holds up the containment jar, inside which scurries a multi-legged fist-sized creature.

BRAINIAC

LEX

Greetings. This message-transmitted in over one hundred and forty languages-comes to you from Earth.

Brainiac regards the message curiously.

LEX

I am Lex Luthor, Owner and CEO of LexCorp- a vast and powerful conglomerate that dominates trade on this planet. To whatever lifeform that may receive this, I extend an invitation to our world. Non-hostile and eager to establish contact with extraterrestrial races, Earth welcomes a visit from whomever receives this greeting. I myself call upon you to make contact, so that we may establish relations, open trade routes...

Brainiac turns away, disinterested. Then, the 'friendly' greeting onscreen turns darker.

LEX

...and discuss any information you might have regarding a visitor to this planet of Kryptonian descent.

Brainiac snaps to attention. The image of Luthor behind him, Brainiac turns, giving us our first good look at it: humanoid in appearance, he's green-skinned, metallic, burned and bald. A series of metal relays criss-cross its forehead, resembling the symbol that represented it on Krypton. Brainiac stares at the screen. Shocked recognition crosses his face.

LEX

From one superior intellect to another- whomever or whatever you may be- I implore you to come to Earth, so that we might discuss the problem we call...

HOST

Superman- friend to Earth, or hindrance? Tonight we take a closer look at the Man of Steel.

We're in a television studio. While the 'Nightline'-like opening logos play, cameras whirl and reposition. The Stage Manager counts down as the show's theme plays. Then:

HOST (cont'd)

With me tonight is LexCorp CEO and Metropolis' second most well-known figure, Lex Luthor.

Seated across from the host, LEX LUTHOR winces at the introduction. Looking far more congenial than he did in his clip aboard the Skull Ship, Lex is in public persona now.

HOST

Mister Luthor. You've repeatedly come down as a Superman skeptic. Would you care to address your distrust of who many people have dubbed 'the man of tomorrow'?

LEX

I'm no enemy of Superman, Ted- quite the contrary. I find his flair for fashion and whimsical powers very...David Copperfield. And such a crowd- pleasing showman who makes Metropolis his home is, on one hand, a boon for the tourist trade. But I merely question the good that Superman represents for the human race. The larger issues, beyond entertainment value.

HOST

Such as?

LEX

Well- aiding the planet at every turn against war, famine, natural disaster, for starters. It represents a complete freeze on the evolutionary process. Superman is interfering with this planet's course of events.

Cut to Lois, sitting beside Lex- beautiful and poised... even though she looks thoroughly pissed.

LOIS

Since Superman's first appearance in Metropolis, this city...this world has slept soundly under the blanket of security he provides. And why?

LEX

Because people are terrified of getting caught not adhering to his neo-fascist doctrine of truth, justice and.. what does he call it again? Oh yes- the American way.

LOIS

Try to remember what this city was like before Superman arrived.

LEX

As I recall, there were less red, white and yellow souvenir stands, and women in apartment buildings could leave their shades open without fear of an intrusive fly-by.

LOIS

You're talking about LexCorp's security copters I'd imagine.

LEX

Have you ever been able to look past your blind allegiance to this off-worlder to think that maybe he employs criminals to improve his p.r? For all we know, they're on his books.

Lois jumps Lex, who tumbles back in his chair. She

HOST

We'll be right back.

Fade to a COMMERCIAL- a sandy, palm-tree lined beach.
A COUPLE frolics, rushing toward the surf.

VOICE-OVER

EXT CORTO MALTESE- DAY

The island of Corto Maltese- a vacation paradise.
People frolic along the shores, and pour into and out

A small BOY grabs his belly-board and makes toward

The image of the vacationers is captured on a screen. In the bowels of a sub-like craft, two unseen figures gear up for something nasty.

EXT CORTO MALTESE SHORELINE- DAY

Water-worshippers, oblivious to the frothing surface of the sea, mere yards from where they play.

Then, the large craft explodes to the surface, rising slightly from the water. The crowd panics and rushes for the beach.

EXT MANTA RAY- DAY

On the hull of the submersible, panels slide and LAUNCHERS pop out, launching missiles at the shore.

EXT CORTO MALTESE BEACH- DAY

A set of missiles hits the beach, shooting sand and trees (and the occasional sun-worshiper) into the sky.

The Manta Ray is destroying the island paradise. DEADSHOT emerges from the craft clad completely in silver and red, featureless (save for the gun-sight covering his right eye).

DEADSHOT

EXT HELIPORT- DAY

Superman sets Luthor down and lands opposite him.
Lex's fearful wide-eyes disappear- replaced by an icy glare.

SUPERMAN

Wanted a word with you, Luthor.

LEX

One of these nights, they're going to blast your pajama-clad ass out of the sky. And I will provide them with the hardware.

SUPERMAN

Funny you should mention that. Somebody attempted that just today.

LEX

This meeting is over.

Lex spins to walk away, but Superman leaps over him, landing in Lex's path.

SUPERMAN

Only an egomaniac like yourself would demand that a LexCorp serial number show up somewhere in his company's handiwork.

LEX

So a super-psycho used a component that my company manufactures- big deal.

SUPERMAN

Oh believe me, Luthor- I even gave you the benefit of the doubt...for a millisecond. Then I remembered the bid you were denied last year for the casino contracts on Corto Maltese.

Lex's eyes flinch ever so slightly.

SUPERMAN

Superman stares Lex down, and pulls him back to safety, dropping him on the roof. Lex chuckles, brushing himself off while rising.

LEX

provided by your x-ray vision.
So while you and I may know the Legion was engineered by me..

NO ONE CAN PROVE IT!!!

Superman shakes his head. Luthor chuckles.

SUPERMAN

Enjoy it while it lasts, Luthor.
Because one day, I will bring you to justice.

Superman flies off.

Luthor strides to the rooftop door and gives it a tug, only to find it locked. He lets out a howl into the night.

LOIS

I'm just...filing my piece on Corto Maltese. Nice bit of work you did there.

Superman flies in, setting down beside a desk. The nameplate on the desk says CLARK KENT.

SUPERMAN

So this is Mister Kent's desk, hunhh?

LOIS

That is Mister Kent's fastidiously immaculate work station- I call it Smallville Central.

SUPERMAN

In honor of his hometown, I take it. Mister Kent's not around tonight?

LOIS

Clark? This late? Please. Besides, I get enough of Clark all day long, thanks.

SUPERMAN

Doesn't take super senses to detect a little friction there. Not a fan of Mister Kent, Miss Lane?

SUPERMAN

He pulls Clark's glasses from his cape and slips them on.

SUPERMAN

I'm really Clark Kent.

Lois goes wide-eyed and faints. Superman rushes forward and catches her. Then she opens her eyes and shakes her head.

INT LEX'S OFFICE- NIGHT

The nerve center of LexCorp. A bank of MONITORS and a vast array of channels adorn one wall. In the center of it all- a monolithic desk, backlit by a large picture window.

Lex enters by the bank of t.v.'s- all of which detail Superman's Corto Maltese endeavor. Lex seethes, muttering and heading to the huge, sunken marble tub at the far end. He runs the water and crosses to his desk, not noticing L-RON resting atop it.

L-RON

Greetings--

He goes wide-eyed at the robot and leaps from his chair.

LEX

Bomb!!!

Grabbing the robot, Lex charges for the tub and hurls it in. He dives onto the floor, hands over his head, awaiting the blast. After a beat, he looks up.

L-Ron slowly rises from the tub. It discharges water from its circuits and sputters.

L-RON

Go with entrance 'B'.

Then, the picture window explodes. From the dust and shards, BRAINIAC glides in, god-like, much to Luthor's shock. Alarms sound.

Lex motions toward his desk. Brainiac follows Lex, but stops short at Lex's impressive computer setup. Brainiac examines the system.

BRAINIAC

Brainiac sharply raises his hand between he and Lex. It reconfigures into something that he inserts into the computer. Whirring and downloading sounds are heard, as Brainiac cocks his head occasionally, as if sampling a wine.

Brainiac turns back to the monitors, studying the images carefully.

LEX

BRAINIAC

What is the source of your power, son of Jor-El...

Kryptonite.

Brainiac whirls back at Lex, surprised.

He swings it like an extended arm at Superman, who ducks the swing- only to be hit by it when Doomsday shakes it loose. Superman catches the tank and rests it on the ground, helping its shaken passengers out of the interior.

Doomsday is on him anew, holding Superman in a headlock.

Then, we hear a high pitch shriek sounding. Superman winces- the sound filling his head. The shriek fades, and we hear tapping, as if on a microphone, and...

The body of the rocket dislodges itself from its interior cabin, and the cabin sinks into the snow. All is quiet. Then, there's a rumbling.

Suddenly, the snow erupts in a white explosion. Pillars rise and connect. A structure is slowly erected - biomechanical in nature. Chambers form, walls - it all distantly resembles the architecture on Krypton. Once complete, all is quiet again.

Good evening, Metropolis. It is with heavy heart that I offer you my and Gotham's deepest condolences.

Bitch, bitch, bitch.

INT. FORTRESS

Superman and the Eradicator stand before stand before the viewscreen of maps.

ERADICATOR

Brainiac will surely destroy this world as he did Krypton, all the while hunting me, which endangers your life. That is against my programming. We must find you a new home.

SUPERMAN

Earth is my home! You expect me to just leave it behind? Leave everyone here to die, just to save myself?!

ERADICATOR

Yes.

Superman stares at the Eradicator who, childlike, doesn't understand the issue.

SUPERMAN

Then what makes you any different than Brainiac?

ERADICATOR

His programming is one of self-preservation. My programming is to ensure your well being.

SUPERMAN

At the cost of the billions of lives I'd be leaving behind? Absolutely not. We're staying here and fighting this thing.

Superman locates his blue and red togs. The Eradicator grabs the old suit from him.

SUPERMAN

I belong to anyone who needs me - right now, that's Earth.

ERADICATOR

Without the sun, the Earth will wither and die in a matter of days.

Superman stares at the Eradicator for a beat, sadly - he's powerless to help.

SUPERMAN

I have to at least try. That's in my programming.

The Eradicator processes this, and stands back, perplexed.

ERADICATOR

Then what exactly do you suggest?

Superman thinks for a moment, then looks purposefully at his savior.

So this is going to work. If there's one thing that's an eternal given, it's that the wool is easiest to pull over Superman's eyes.

Brainiac looks at L-Ron, who looks at Lex.

L-RON

The only set of blind eyes the wool's been pulled over here is you, baldy.

Lex looks over at the pair, cornered. He smells the turn.

LEX

Wait a second...we're in this together! I've lost just as much as you...more even! They blew up my building!

BRAINIAC

You have been insufferable from the first, Lex Luthor of Earth. When first we met, you promised me a gift beyond your giving, because it was already due to me: godhood.

LEX

(backing up)

I made you a hero to the people of Earth, you...inhuman pile of nuts and bolts! You owe me!

BRAINIAC

I- the artificial intelligence- may have something grisly planned for Ms. Lane, yes. But you traded against your own race for profit. Who's the more inhuman of we two?

Lex stares at Brainiac, dumbfounded. He tries to muster some sense of decency.

LEX

Wh...what are you going to do to the woman?

Brainiac motions to his Soldiers, who grab Lex.

Jimmy, Bibbo and the Rebels watch, wide-eyed as teh

They're going to kill her!
Somebody's gotta do something!

Lois shakes her head, teary-eyed.

Brainiac throws his head back, laughing. Superman looks to the Eradicator, who offers him a reassuring wink.

BRAINIAC
You think it advanced? The irony is how primitive it is compared to your own! You have no doubt over-thought on the ShadowCaster, when in reality, you should have approached it as a child's toy!

ERADICATOR
A child's toy?

BRAINIAC
Certainly! It's Earth hardware, crossed with my own Coluan technology- its systems are so far beneath your own capabilities that a simple binary synapse would've bypassed any contamination factor.

ERADICATOR
(smiles)
And they call you Brainiac.

ceases to be a machine.

INT SHADOWCASTER

Circuits blow up. Transistors explode.

EXT SHADOWCASTER

It begins losing power. Sections of panel begin shutting down. Sunlight begins pouring through in shafts.

The Eradicator begins to shift in shape, the anti-technology coursing through his body. His form finally comes to rest on the figure we've come to know him as most. His face forms a peaceful, joyous smile.

Then, he explodes.

EXT SPACE

As Superman plummets to Earth, one of the BEAMS of sunlight hits him full force. He stops falling, and rights himself- bathing in the pure sunbeam. He stretches his muscles like he's just woken up after a loooong sleep. A knowing smile crawls across his face. His powers returned, SUPERMAN LIVES!

INT CITADEL

INT. CITADEL MENAGERIE

Superman bursts through the ceiling again, and through the many levels of the Ship, still contained in the single beam of light.

INT. PIT

He rockets through the ceiling of the pit, allowing the singular shaft of light to follow. Suddenly, he's struck by a high-powered stream of murky liquid from above, which knocks him out of the light, and entraps him in the 'webbing', beside the struggling Lois and Lex.

And then, as if on cue, the mother of all monsters, the THANAGARIAN SNARE BEAST, slowly moves into the light. It resembles something of a cross between a squid and a spider, but very bio-mechanical and sleek. And now - inhabited by Brainiac's voice is heard, emanating from the creature's maw

but the creature grabs hold of him, pulling the Man of Steel back into the darkness.

The Beast brings Superman to its jaws while letting loose with an ungodly screech. Superman throws his feet against the creature's jaws, holding them open with what little strength he has.

Suddenly, the creature's underbelly opens, setting loose hundreds of smaller, metallic versions of itself. Superman breaks free of the Beast and begins fighting the creatures off, smashing them together, crushing them in his grip. We hear Lois' shriek.
Superman reacts.

The micro-Beasts are crawling all over Lois and Lex.

We see the strain on Superman's face, the veins in his neck and head throbbing.

And then we see why - Superman uses all of his strength to stretch his fist into the just-out-of-reach shaft of light. he makes it, charging himself.

The jaws of the creatures almost on his head, Superman comes across with a right hook that knocks the creature into the air. Superman crawls into the sunlight, takes in as much as he can, and leaps up at the Beast, grabbing hold of the wildly flailing creature. He flies it up and...
